The Man Overboard

Dear Darryl,

Thank you for being a guest on Holder Tonight. It was a pleasure to have you on the program to share your story of addiction and recovery and to talk about the safety situation at sea when it comes to alcohol.

Since we are around the 20th anniversary of the Exxon Valdez incident it was timely to have you on to share your expertise and talk a little about your book The Man Overboard.

What you had to say was food for thought for many in our audience and it was a most informative segment of the show (even though you are a Bruins fan!)

As promised I am going to get a copy of the interview to you via the Internet. You will find your appearance available to you as an MP3. It's in a secure location on my website, accessible only by you. All you have to do is go to the URL listed on your cover email and download it to your own computer. Then you can do with it whatever you wish, such as edit it for clips for your own website or just keep it for your files.

The interview will only be on my site for a short period of time. I would appreciate it if you could send me an email letting me know you have it, so I can then take it down.

Continued successes with all you do and thank you once again for all your time and trouble.

Respectfully yours,

Peter Anthony Holder
